TPTSC plans for facility to be located north of MD 100 off Route 1.

Howard County Executive Ken Ulman requested the study. The Howard County Tennis Patrons, the group behind the development of the TPTSC, will provide $40,000 for the study. The Maryland Stadium Authority will provide the remaining $35,000 for the study.

40-Love Wine-Tasting Match: a Huge Success

A wonderful time was had by all who on Sunday, June 5, 2011 attended the 40-Love Wine-Tasting Match at the Gathering Place in River Hill. The event was sponsored by the Howard County Tennis Patrons (HCTP) to raise funds to support the development of the Troy Park Tennis & Sports Complex and included live and silent auctions. A comprehensive collection of wine was sampled by attendees, along with delicious hors d'oeuvres provided by Absolutely Perfect Catering. Vic Broccolino lead the live auction, which featured a sunset cruise for 10 on a yacht with fine wine and delicious food and an in-home dinner and wine-tasting evening for a small group.

Matt Wigler, a local jazz pianist, provided lovely background music for the event. Along with Matt, HCTP would like to thank all those who attended and the event co-sponsors Absolutely Perfect Catering and The Perfect Pour. HCTP is extremely grateful to all of the individuals and companies who donated auction items to the event and helped the event be a huge success!
